

Creating idea after idea is something you must work hard at. It will help you solve any obstacle that you may have to combat. It will inspire you into action, but you must be sure to organize. When acting on a plan, you are the one who is wise.

As you go on your journey to find purpose in what you do. You will constantly change focus onto something that is new. You will not always know exactly what must be done. But you must work hard towards your dreams and try to have some fun.

Go through your life with a dream in mind. You'll be shocked to discover the things that you find. Random events in your life will have different meanings for you. They'll inspire different ideas of different things you can do.

If you organize these ideas and plan with a purpose. The dream that you chasing will start to surface. A dream plus a plan plus a bunch of action, will create a thing of great attraction.

Think about your life and how it can be great. What can you do to make it better, what can you create? How can you help others as you chasing towards your dreams? Helping others along the way is key, even if that's not how it seems.

On a separate piece of paper and in real life:

- 1.) Write out some of your dreams and goals.
- 2.) Imagine what it will feel like if you achieved your dreams now, write it down and act it out.
- 3.) As you chase towards your dreams encourage others to chase their own unique dreams.

Anything in this life is possible, it all depends on what you do. The sooner you decide on what you want, the sooner you may begin to pursue. The sooner you begin to pursue the ideas that come right out of thin air. The sooner your life will become what you want, I hope you are aware.

The viewpoint of your life is your decision to make. The walls you build in your head are the walls you have to break. You decide the world that you want to see. You decide the person that you want to be. You must believe in yourself and have confidence in what you want to do. Regardless of the comments from others and their point of view.

The world we live in is strange, I hope you know. Don't let the thoughts of others change the direction that you go. Believe in the person that you know you are. Work hard and chase your dreams, you're sure to go far!
