PIP

Children's Success Series Vol. I
By: Mr. Roses

Under the tree branch, over the stream.
The water is cold and all the pigs scream.

The stick with the string and the carrot that was tied.
The pigs wanted to eat as they chase down the hillside.

The girl ran and she ran and she ran some more.
The pigs chased and they chased but what did they chase for?

In the middle of the community she picked up a leaf.
A few words for the people from the mouth of the chief.

PIP – Listen up all, a great success we have had today! We will feast today off a nice display. Now tomorrow wait and see, I promise you the best! Some pants, some shirts, maybe even a vest! They want to take our trees and the leaves we use as clothes. They want to take our trees and the food that it grows. Each day we will take back just a little bit more. Each day we will sneak more out their front door!

(Write out below a few ideas on how you are going to make your dreams become real.)

Think about your options and see all points of view. Think about all the outcomes and make sure your thoughts are true. Focus and accuracy are important indeed, once they are mastered you will move with great speed.

Think of your dream and plan where to go. Listen to your gut, the right decision it will always know. Write out your plan and the steps to achieve your dream. There will be obstacles down the road but they're never as hard as they seem.
